

CONTRACT FOR NEW LIBRARY

Cullen Brothers Given the Job for the Total Sum of $35,000.

TWO-STORY PLANS

A Few Changes Made, to Bring Cost Within the Amount on Hand.

THE ELDRED BEQUEST

The contract for the erection of the new Public Library was awarded to John P. Cullen & Bro., of this city, at an adjourned regular meeting of the board of directors, last night. The board had adjourned to last night so as to act as soon as the Eldred estate matter was settled. The ten thousand dollar gift of the late F. S. Eldred, it will be remembered, was contingent upon that amount remaining in his estate, after paying the other legacies. By the adoption of the executor's report Tuesday, in County Court, it became certain that there was more than that amount left after paying the other legacies and that the $10,000 would be available on the payment of this legacy.

Accept Cullen Bros' Bid
All of the ten members of the board were present at the meeting last night and a motion to accept the bid of J. P. Cullen & Bro., made last summer, being the lowest bid, was unanimously adopted. The bid having been reduced to changes which brought it within the amount available. The president and secretary were then unanimously directed to enter into a contract with Cullen & Bros., which was then done. The contract calls for the erection of the building leaving the second story partially unfinished for $35,000. It also provides for the finishing of the upper story if ordered at any time before the final completion of the building for $1,935 additional. The building is to be completed by November 1. The board expects to fully complete the building but deemed it best not to enter into the final contract for the upstairs finishing until later in the season.

Plans Adopted Last Fall
The plans and specifications upon which the contract was let are the same as adopted unanimously by the board last fall. The board is congratulating itself and the city on being able to let the contract at such a low figure. They were afraid that the necessary delay would greatly increase the cost of building in view of the rise in building material during the last six months.

Cullen & Bros. stood by their offer made last fall although it will take all the profit off the job for them. Cullen & Bros. feel a personal pride in being able to build the library and the board feel that they will give the city a building to be proud of. The Cullens are now engaged in building two Carnegie libraries; one at Freeport and one at Streator.

Eldred Fund Came Handy
There is another matter the board feel good about and that is the approval that persons high up in library work have given to the plans adopted. The manager of the Library Bureau of Boston, New York and Chicago—the greatest library furnishers in the world—called upon the board a few days ago regarding the furniture for the new library building. After examining the plans, he stated that he had examined the plans of nearly everyone of the new Carnegie libraries and that ours was the best adapted for library purposes and economy of administration of any that he had seen. Great credit should be given by the city to F. S. Eldred for this happy result. It would have been impossible to build a building suitable for the library now and the growth to come for the $30,000 given by Mr. Carnegie. Mrs. Eldred has worked in entire harmony with the board to carry out Mr. Eldred's wishes in regard to the library.

The children's room will be an enduring monument to Mr. Eldred's generosity and to his love for his home city.

Very little change has been made in the outside appearance of the building to bring it within the amount available for its erection. The plans are the same as adopted by the board last fall. It is still a two story building and the outside is the same with the exception that on the roof elevation, some of the terra cotta work has been taken out on account of its great cost and copper substituted.

On the main street side of the building on the second story, over the main entrance are six pillars, which in the original plans were terra cotta, these have been changed to copper and also the grill work along the roof. The plan of the first floor has been somewhat modified to give more book room and a larger room for the children's museum. The main vestibule remains the same, with the exception that circular partitions dividing the vestibule from the library proper have been moved to the roof and space made for ten book stacks instead of five as in the original plans.

The Children's Library
In the children's library on the north side of the building the partition dividing the room has been done away with, making one large room extending the whole depth of the building. The wardrobe, that formerly was in the center of the children's room has been taken out and in its place one large wardrobe built adjoining the main vestibule.

These changes give more book room, and also make a large commodious room of the children's room. The basement is practically the same as in the original plans, consisting of a large document room with ten stacks for documents, a packing and receiving room, toilet and boiler rooms. Two large rooms for future extension beside the boiler and fuel rooms are also provided for.

The interior of the second story will not be finished at present but in the future when there is money available for this purpose will be put in shape to conform with the plans.

A Handsome Outline
The building as a whole will present the handsome outline as designed in the first plans. The reduction in the cost of the building being made where it does not detract from the looks of the building and in some respects improves it.

It has been the aim of the board in all these alterations to retain the beauty of the structure without sacrificing the convenience of the interior plan.

The Cullen Bros. announce their intention to get at the work at once and getting the building finished by Nov. 1. They have been figuring on this contract all winter and have much of their preparation to begin in an advanced state.

PRINCE HENRY REACHES HOME

Kaiser and Members of His Family Meet Him at Kiel.

ENJOYED HIS TRIP

Wilhelm Told of the Tour, in an Interview Lasting Several Hours.

PRAISE CHIEF WILKIE

Kiel, March 20.—The German battle ship Kaiser Wilhelm II., having on board Emperor William and Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia, arrived here at 5:30 p. m. last evening. His majesty and the prince were welcomed with the firing of salutes and cheers from the naval squadron.

Berlin, March 20.—Prince Henry landed at Kiel at dusk and joined the princess and his sons.

That which took place between the royal brothers is of course not known further than to say that the brothers had a talk lasting several hours, and that Prince Henry told Emperor William his experiences of his trip. Their embers of the prince's party were much amused while on their travels at the calls of "Speech! speech!" from the crowds collected at various places, and the cries of "How's your brother William?"

The only occasion when the least alarm for the prince's safety was felt was when a member of the party saw a man enter the prince's car at one end while Prince Henry was on the platform at the other end, bowing to the crowd. This man was ordered out of the car. He hesitated, and then withdrew. A member of the prince's staff pointed out this person to John E. Wilkie, chief of the secret service, who accompanied the prince on his trip, who at once said:

"Why, that is one of my men." Prince Henry does not know why he did not visit the stockyards at Chicago, except that he was advised by Mr. Wilkie that it would be better to omit this part of the program, as the Polish workmen at the stockyards might create a disturbance.

Mr. Wilkie spoke of this change of program to the owner of the packing house it was intended to visit, and although arrangements were made to see the packing house privately it was later found inconvenient to do so.

Mr. Wilkie is spoken of in the warmest terms by Prince Henry's companions for his discretion and his careful arrangements for the prince's security.

Moves to His Farm, Where He Will Live in Barn Till New House Is Completed.

Lincoln, Neb., March 20.—W. J. Bryan was 42 years of age today, and he celebrated the event by removing from the city, to his farm four miles away. The residence at 1,625 D street, with its historic porch, was vacated, and until his new residence on the farm is completed the family will reside in the barn. This barn is not the small frame structure familiar to many in the 1900 campaign, but a substantial brick structure, plastered and partitioned off, and as comfortable as many houses. Mr. Bryan's new home has reached the foundation stage, and his object in moving is to enable himself and wife to be present and watch the building of the superstructure. Mr. Bryan personally assisted in moving.

FOUR HEARTS BEAT AS ONE

Magnolia Town Romance to Culminate in Chicago Double Wedding.

BOY CHUMS TO WED

Young Men Will Each Lead the Other's Sister to the Matrimonial Altar.

NEVILL'S AND SHAW'S

Four hearts will beat as two on April 3, when George L. Shaw and Roy A. Nevill will each lead the other's sister to the altar in the city of Chicago. The romance which will culminate in the joining of two families with double bonds of matrimony began in Wisconsin. For years the Nevill family had made its home in the little town of Magnolia. There the son Roy, and the daughter, Bertha grew up together.

Four years ago the Shaws moved to the Wisconsin village. Roy Nevill became acquainted with George Shaw and each had a sister and the girls became fast friends. The brothers each owned a buggy and the summer days were shortened by drives. In Roy Nevill's buggy was always to be found Miss Hollis Shaw, and the son beside George Shaw, Miss Bertha Nevill occupied. The engagements soon were announced.

The prospective brides are still neighbors in Magnolia and the groom share apartments at 33 South Forty-eight avenue, Chicago. Shaw is employed at the factory of the Victor Piano company at Forty-ninth avenue and Lake street and Nevill at A. G. Pearson & Co's. warehouse, Forty-eight avenue and Kinzie street.

The double wedding will be held at the little home which the grooms have prepared at 2,400 Kinzie street, and the wedding reception will be held at the home of R. O. Shaw, 27 South Forty-eight avenue. The marriage licenses were secured yesterday. Both of the coming brides are 26 years old. Mr. George Shaw is 26 and Mr. Nevill is 21.

These young people are well-known in this city and in the western part of Rock county and many relatives, neighbors and friends extend most hearty congratulations and the successful culmination of the proposed matrimonial event.

HEAD OF CRIMINAL WAS TORN OFF

Horrible Scene at the Hanging of a Mississippi Murderer—Wife and Mother Present.

Aberdeen, Miss., March 20.—William Lanier, the murderer of Walter and Homer Little in this county, who was twice sentenced to death by the court and whose sentence was twice appealed to the supreme court of Mississippi and was twice affirmed, today at 1 o'clock paid the penalty of his crime on the gallows. Before the execution he made a confession to the court stenographer, in which he sketched his career from early life, a life of crime and law breaking.

When the trap was sprung his head was completely severed from his body, falling some distance away. The mother, father, sisters and wife of Lanier witnessed the decapitation. The body, rigid in death, stood upright, when it struck the ground for a moment, blood gushing in all directions. Lanier's wife fainted, so did his mother and one of his sisters.

ARREST NEGRO FOR CRIMINAL ASSAULT

Bloodthirsty Feeling in Quincy, Ill., Over Developments in the Sayes Case.

Quincy, Ill., March 20.—Willie Sayles, a mulatto, 16 years old, was arrested by the police last night, and confessed to having assaulted five girls in the last three weeks. The police are keeping the arrest quiet for fear of mob violence. H. H. Vonderhaar, the father of the girl assaulted Monday, has threatened to kill the assailant on sight, and has the backing of many friends. He has been told of the arrest but has refused admission to the jail. Vonderhaar declares he will have satisfaction, and does not propose to wait for the law to take its course.

The jail, which is in the basement of the city hall, is guarded by an extra detail of police.

GOV. LA FOLLETTE GIVES A SURPRISE

Springs the Opening Gun of His Campaign Upon the Farmers at Oconomowoc.

Oconomowoc, Wis., March 20.—Governor LaFollette opened his campaign for renomination with a carefully prepared speech delivered last evening at the Farmer's Institute "round-up" in this city.

The governor filled the gap in the programme caused by the inability of former Governor Hoard to be present. Yesterday morning it was not known by the great majority of the farmers and others interested in the institute that former Governor Hoard would not keep his engagement, nor was it known by any but the elect till late yesterday afternoon that Governor LaFollette had been chosen to fill the time.

The announcement, in fact, came as a distinct surprise to almost everyone out to the governor and those of his lieutenants having the institute in charge. That the matter was carefully planned with a view toward affording the governor an opportunity to launch his bark for a second cruise on the stormy sea of politics.

To say that the speech was enthusiastically received by the 600 men and women who heard it would be an exaggeration.

The opening sentences were devoted to laudation of the farmers of the state and to a dissertation upon the rapid strides along the path of progress made by agricultural interests of Wisconsin during the twenty years just past.

It was not until the speaker laid aside the mask and made plain his intention to use the institute as a prop to his political boom that general interest began to lag, though a well-drilled clique, led by the Madison contingent, kept up a pretense of enthusiasm that deceived no one.

The slurs of omission and of commission of the last legislature as detailed by Governor LaFollette fell flat and his dissertations on the subject of primary election reforms and his discussion of the question of taxation failed to arouse more than a passing interest. The speech was the subject of much comment after the meeting adjourned and the opinion generally expressed was that the governor was unfortunate in his choice of occasions for its delivery.

END REVOLT ON ISLAND OF SAMAR

Four Hundred Filipino Rebels Agree to Surrender—Will Receive $30 for Every Rifle.

Manila, March 20.—General J. H. Smith, commander of the American troops in Samar, has arranged an armistice with General Guevarra, who succeeded Luciano as commander of the rebels on the island.

Guevarra has promised to surrender with his entire force and all arms and ammunition. He has approximately 400 riflemen. The rebels will receive $30 for every rifle surrendered.

General Chaffee considers that this will end the military rebellion on the island and that the toughest military problem yet presented has been solved.

CARNEGIE GIVES A LIBRARY TO MONROE

He Offers the Green County City $20,000 for a Building Under the Usual Conditions.

Monroe, Wis., March 20.—Andrew Carnegie has offered the city of Monroe $20,000 for a public library on the condition that the city guarantee a fund of $2,000 a year with which to maintain the same. The city is at present paying $1,000 a year to maintain a library and there is good reason to believe that the other $1,000 will be forthcoming. It will be unnecessary to purchase a site as the city already possesses one suitable in every respect. The offer was made through W. W. Churchill, formerly of this city, now employed by the Westinghouse company of New York, who is an intimate friend of Mr. Schwab.

PLAN TO FORCE THE BOER ISSUE; ACTION BY THE HOUSE DEMOCRATS

Desire to End the Struggle—Suggest That Congress Make an Appeal to Great Britain to Hasten

Peace—Anxious to Show Sympathy.

Washington, D. C., March 20.—The democrats of the House of Representatives last night formed a plan to force the Boer issue before congress. They also took a step which is regarded as absolutely indicative of what may be expected from the party as a whole of the Boer war continues for an indefinite period.

First the democrats in congress will try to force the house committee on foreign affairs to send back to the House of Representatives, with a favorable report, a resolution declaring of the nation's sympathy with the struggling Boers.

Second, the scheme of the minority is to assure great Britain through congress that while this country is absolutely neutral it is anxious that proffers of peace be accepted and the war in South Africa thus ended.

BRITISH PLAN TO PENSION AGED; WILL COST $60,000,000 ANNUALLY

Bill Favored by Joseph Chamberlain Passes Its Second Reading in the House of Commons—Adds to Tax Burden—Features of Measure.

London, March 20.—The passage of the aged pensioner's bill to a second reading in the House of Commons yesterday was a singular tribute to the influence of Joseph Chamberlain. The measure followed the lines laid down by him in many public speeches and aimed to provide pensions for workers above the age of 65, without discouraging habits of thrift.

Mr. Green moved the second reading in a candid speech, in which he estimated the cost of the scheme at from $50,000,000 to $60,000,000 annually, divided between the Treasury and the local authorities, and there was no serious opposition on either side of the house. While neither local rates nor the treasury are in a state for so large an addition to the public burdens, there was a general disposition to sanction the general principle of old age pensions, and the government supporters were willing to make political capital out of so radical a measure of state socialism.

Briefly the measure provides that men and women at the age of 65 or over shall be paid a pension of not less than five shillings, ($1.75) per week, providing they have not an income from any source of more than ten shillings (2.50) per week and are in all respects worthy.

The pensions are to be paid by the local authorities out of the district funds. To this fund the national treasury will make an additional contribution not to exceed one-half of the estimated cost of the pensions.

It is estimated that there are in the United Kingdom 450,000 persons who would be eligible to pensions under the law.

MAKE A START FOR CEMENT POST CO.

MEETING OF BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION LAST NIGHT.

Seven Hundred Dollars Is Secured Toward Raising the Bonus the Company Requires to Put Up a Big Plant in This City—Will Buy the Paul Farm.

A special meeting of the Business Men's association was held at the municipal court room last evening to hear the report of a committee having in charge the matter of securing the Cement Post Mfg. Co. in this city. It being Wednesday evening many of the merchants could not get away from their business and consequently the attendance was not as large as was hoped for. Much enthusiasm was manifested and an earnest effort was made to secure subscriptions to the bonus fund. Seven men subscribed $700 toward that fund.

President Levi B. Carle called the meeting to order and asked for the report of the committee. C. S. Jackman as chairman of the committee stated the committee had received a proposition from a company who desired to locate a factory in this city having a capacity of making 5,000 cement posts per day. The committee had investigated the site desired by the company, the Paul farm near the southeastern part of the city and found that the owner would not sell a part of the farm, but would sell the entire farm for $5,000.

He further stated that five men had agreed to buy the farm and sell 10 acres for a site for the factory for $1,000. The committee had investigated the standing of the men comprising the firm and found them to be men of good character and standing. They are strongly in favor of the factory and recommend that an effort be made to secure it in this city.

A. E. Bingham had prepared a blank subscription list and read the heading or agreement. In regard to the subscriptions.

Mr. Jeffris said that every effort should be made to get the factory to locate here. It helped business and every factory brought here had a tendency to bring others here. We should have a club like the 40,000 club of Madison, whose aim is to increase the population of that city to 40,000 and they were making long strides in the right direction. Every factory brought here adds to the value of the property and money spent in this way is well spent. The subscriptions made by Jamesville men are to be paid to the company only when the factory is erected and the machinery is successful operation. The factory will employ 100 men.

Michael Hayes read a letter from the firm making the proposition.

A prominent capitalist from Cleveland, O., was present and stated that he was well acquainted with Mr. Cole and Mr. Morgan and knew them to be honest, capable men, and would fully carry out any agreement made with the citizens of Jamesville. He had had business relations with them and they were honest in their conduct. He had met the members of the firm in Chicago and had induced them to come to Jamesville and look the ground over. They had done so and made this city a proposition. He had done all he could to get them to locate in this city in which he was materially interested.

He further stated that the company had a surprise in store for the city. He stated that they would have to have special machinery and would erect buildings to cost from $20,000 to $50,000. They would need a curing house one thousand feet long and sixty feet wide, one story high. A factory 50 by 150 to 200 feet long and two stories high, all to be built of brick. They would need five hydraulic presses with a pressure of 100 tons.

Mr. Carle thought the investment a four months, when my husband became impatient because I grew worse instead of better, and in speaking to the druggist he advised him to get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sensitive Wash. How I wish I had taken that at first! It would have saved me weeks of suffering. It took three long months to restore me, but it is a happy relief, and we are both most grateful to you. Your Compound has brought joy to our home and health to me."—Mrs. PAULINE JUDSON, 47 Hopt Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.—$3.00 per bottle. If above testimonial is not genuine.

It would seem by this statement that women would save time and much sickness if they would get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and also write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free and always helps.

safe one as the buildings were to be erected before the money was paid over.

Mr. Jeffris stated that the site for the factory could not be obtained without buying the Paul farm entire. It contained eighty-five acres and the price asked was $8,000. He stated that at a meeting yesterday afternoon five men had agreed to buy the farm and sell the desired site for $1,000 and run the risk of getting their money out of the rest of the farm. The five are L. B. Carle, J. M. Bostwick, Hayes Bros., A. E. Bingham and M. G. Jeffris.

R. J. Richardson stated that he would oppose the proposition, mainly through jealousy. The industry would benefit Rock county. The cement posts would be better than cedar posts, which are precarious because of fire and decay. The use of cement and concrete is coming into use. In many ways and the people could not do better than to invest in this scheme.

W. G. Wheeler suggested that a subscription paper be prepared and he put his name down for one hundred dollars amid cheers. The following amounts were subscribed:

|--------------------|-----|
| W. G. Wheeler | 100 |
| L. B. Carle | 100 |
| Schaller & McKee | 100 |
| Gazette Ptg. Co. | 100 |
| Reichle Rehl & Co. | 100 |
| Archard Ptg. Co. | 50 |
| O. F. Nowlan | 50 |

J. M. Bostwick offered to sell his interest in the farm to anyone and give $200 for the bonus. C. S. Jackman made the same proposition and M. G. Jeffris would sell out his farm interests and donate $100.

D. W. Watt, who had the selling of the farm said the five heirs would not sell a part of the farm. All must be sold or none.

A committee consisting of C. S. Jackman, J. M. Bostwick, Hayes Bros., A. E. Bingham and M. G. Jeffris were appointed to solicit subscriptions.

Boy Badly Injured
A five year old son of Peter Mooney, of the town of Harmony, was seriously injured this morning by being kicked in the face by a horse. The shoe struck him squarely in the face, one of the calks hitting him on the chin, tearing out a large portion of it. The boys' front teeth were all knocked out and his jaw broken. The toe of the shoe struck him on the nose, knocking it and cutting the upper portion of his face badly. Dr. James Mills was called to attend the little sufferer and fixed him up as well as possible. He will probably carry the scars caused by the kick as long as he lives.

Pleasant Necktie Social
A very pleasant necktie social was held by the Good Templars at their hall on South Main street last evening. The lady members of the lodge wore aprons and neckties of the same material. The ties were sold at auction to the gentlemen members, and after the sale the gentlemen had to find the lady wearing an apron corresponding with the tie he purchased. This was the plan for choosing partners for supper. A good sized sum was realized from the sale of neckties which will go toward a fund to buy a piano for the lodge.

REWARD OF MERIT.

A New Catarrh Cure Secures National Popularity in Less than one Year. Throughout a great nation of eighty million it is a desperate struggle to secure even a recognition for a new article to say nothing of achieving popular favor, and yet within one year Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new catarrh cure, has met with such success that today it can be found in every drug store throughout the United States and Canada.

To be sure a large amount of advertising was necessary in the first instance to bring the remedy to the attention of the public, but everyone familiar with the subject knows that advertising alone never made any article permanently successful. It must have in addition absolute, undeniable merit, and this the new catarrh cure certainly possesses in a marked degree.

Physicians, who formerly depended upon inhalers, sprays and local washes or ointments, now use Stuart's Catarrh Tablets because, as one of the most prominent stated, these tablets contain in pleasant, convenient form all the really efficient catarrhal remedies, such as red gum, blood root and similar antiseptics.

They contain no cocaine or opiate, and are given to children with entire safety and benefit.

Dr. J. J. Reitter, of Covington, Ky., says: "I suffered from catarrh in my head and throat every fall, with stoppage of the nose and irritation in the throat affecting my voice and often extending to the stomach, causing catarrh of the stomach. I bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at my druggist, carried them in my pocket, and used them faithfully, and the way in which they cleared my head and throat was certainly remarkable. I had no catarrh last winter and spring and consider myself entirely free from catarrhal trouble."

Mrs. Jerome Ellison, of Wheeling, W. Va., writes: "I suffered from catarrh nearly my whole life and last winter my two children also suffered from catarrhal colic and sore throats so much that they were out of school a large portion of the winter. My brother who was cured of catarrhal deafness by using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets urged me to try them so much that I did so and am thankful for what they have done for myself and my children. I always kept a box of tablets in the house and at the first appearance of a cold or sore throat we nip it in the bud and catarrh is no longer a household affliction with us."

Full sized packages of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold for fifty cents at all druggists. Send for book on cause and cure of catarrh mailed free. Address, F. A. Stuart Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

plays, "Ole Olson" and will drop the garb of the nonchalant and resourceful emigrant, Ole, at the Myers Grand Saturday, Matinee and night, March 22. Mr. Hendrickson is universally recognized as the best exponent of Swedish character on the American stage, a fact that is amply proven by the attempts of every manager of Swedish plays to secure his services. He rightfully considers, however, that in "Ole Olson" this particular nationality is most truthfully drawn and presented and that it gives the best opportunity of presenting the wholesome, honest and incorruptible Swedish types as he really exists. Several changes have been made in the dramatic story and these have tended to strengthen the play. A number of special features add to its enjoyable qualities, too—notably the original Swedish ladies' quartette.

It is not too often that we enjoy the luxury of witnessing metropolitan theatrical successes fresh from the crucible, as it were, on its very first tour and when we do, we must appreciate it, for it gives us metropolitan airs and importance that must be enjoyed by our less fortunate neighbors. This fact is especially accentuated when the treat comes in the shape of a popular and beautiful singer and actress in a successful opera with a record of one hundred and twenty-five metropolitan performances, further embellished with the assurance from a reliable management that it will be presented here in its entirety and with all the pomp and grandeur that stamped it a success on its original production. Yet that is the condition of affairs set forth in the announcement of the appearance of Marguerite Sylva in Willard Spenser's phenomenally successful comedy opera, "Miss Bob White," which will be seen at the Myers Grand soon.

VICTORY FOR THE MADISON BOWLERS

Local Team Gave the Capital Men a Close Call on Hockett's Alleys Last Night

Madison had a close call last night but the Columbia bowling team from that city again succeeded in beating the Jamesville team in a series of three games at Hockett's alleys by fifteen pins. At the end of the first game Madison had the best of it by ten pins which was not a heavy lead. At the end of the second game it looked blue for the Jamesville team, the score then standing, Jamesville, 1,498; Madison, 1,574, or a lead of seventy-six pins.

In the last game the Jamesville team commenced to get onto the fact that they were hopelessly beaten unless they did some good work and filled up 869 pins to the Madisons 808. It was a good effort but was not enough, the Madison team still having fifteen points the best of them. The Jamesville team will go to Beloit on Thursday evening and play a team from that city. The scores last night are as follows:

Fire Protection for Opera House
Better fire protection is now assured at the Myers Grand Opera House. The contract for the placing of several fire extinguishers on the stage and in the auditorium has been awarded to the Hardin Hand Grenade Co. of Chicago. With such protection near at hand the prevention of a serious fire as well as loss of life, may be easily avoided. The new iron stairway that leads from the balcony to bluff street is also a move in the right direction and would result in a quick exit from the balcony in case of an alarm of fire in the house.

BIG FIRE LOSS AT FORT WAYNE

Stores in Business Center Are Burned, Causing a Loss of $150,000.

Fort Wayne, Ind., March 20.—Fire originating in a rubbish burner caused a loss of between $150,000 and $200,000 in the five-story building at Calhoun and Washington streets, owned by Louis Fox. The blaze was discovered shortly after noon and it was not until 9 o'clock last night that it was under control.

Fireman William Hensel fell from a ladder and was probably fatally injured. The loss is chiefly on stocks, as only the two first floors of the building were burned.

The loss on the building is $20,000, fully covered by insurance. Soliday & Hite's loss is $33,000, with $20,000 insurance, and the Armstrong millinery company's loss is placed at $55,000 with $67,000 insurance. Jacob's loss is heavy. Many adjoining buildings were damaged by fire and water.

It is easier to live within one's income than without it, and to live in perfect health it is only necessary to take Dr. Crane's Quaker Tonic Tablets, the perfection of purity in medicine. For kidney troubles, torpid liver, indigestion, headaches, constipation. All drug stores, fifty cents.

Reform School in Flames.

Lexington, Ky., March 20.—The State School of Reform, in which 287 children are confined, is in flames. All the children are believed to have got out safely. The first report was received by telephone at 1 o'clock this morning, and a fire engine was sent immediately to the scene, which is six miles from the city. At 1:10 o'clock the boys' building collapsed. The building in which the telephone was located was on fire and one of the guards who was answering the telephone declared he must run, as the heat and smoke made it impossible to remain. The institution was erected at a cost of $100,000. There are eight buildings.

Two Die in Hoboken Fire.

New York, March 20.—The reports which have been spread concerning the heavy loss of life at the burning of the steamer British Queen at Hoboken prove to be without foundation. Two men have lost their lives as a result of the fire and unless some longshoremen who leaped into the water were unable to reach the wharf this will constitute the whole of the death list. All the others who were injured by the fire are recovering. The dead: Thomas Connery, fireman of the fireboat; David A. Brody, drowned by falling on boat unnoticed.

Quincy Desperado Caught.

Quincy, Ill., March 20.—The police have captured Sayles, the mulatto boy who has terrorized the northeastern portion of the city for the last three weeks. He has confessed to assaulting no less than five girls. An extra detail of police is guarding the city prison, and every precaution to prevent a lynching is being taken. Sayles is only 16 years old, but he has served one term in the Pontiac reformatory for stabbing a white boy, and a few months ago he was put in jail for shooting a companion with a rifle.

TO FORM NUCLEUS FOR RELIEF FUND

FIREMEN'S RELIEF ASSOCIATION TO PUBLISH A SOUVENIR

Placing Janesville Streets, Business Blocks, Etc., in a Beautiful Panorama—Will Be Up-To-Date, and Include Local Chronology of the City and County.

The Janesville Fire Department has organized a relief association, which will be known as "The Firemen's Relief Association of the City of Janesville." Its objects being fully set forth in the Wisconsin statutes—being for the care of sick and disabled members and relief of their families. Officers have been elected as follows:

President—John C. Spencer.
Vice President—A. W. Bauman.
Secretary—James P. Gillespie.
Treasurer—George H. Osgood.
Executive Committee—M. P. Birmingham, T. F. Abbott, P. D. Chamblin.

This association proposes to publish a souvenir for the purpose of establishing a nucleus of a relief fund. With this end in view the Firemen's Relief Association has entered into contracts with several parties, incurring considerable expense and time, in order that the "souvenir," when completed, will not only reflect credit upon the city, the companies, but every one engaged in the work.

The Executive Committee of the Firemen's Relief Association has assigned the work of compiling this souvenir to Chief Spencer, whose fifty years residence in Janesville, and his forty-two years' experience in newspaper work in Janesville, is a sufficient guarantee that the compiling will be faithfully and accurately done.

The Firemen's Relief Association intend that his "souvenir" shall be a work of art, of local historical value and with this idea in view the compiler intends to give a brief historical sketch of the fire department from its organization to the present time, local chronology—which will include everything of a general local importance that ever occurred in the city, which includes all the city government, the churches, secret and civic societies, giving dates—in a word, while the Firemen's Relief Association puts this before the public as a "souvenir" it will be a work of reference as to local events as well as a work of art.

The Firemen's Relief Association has contracted for 1,500 copies of this "souvenir," and as many more copies will be printed as the returns or demands may warrant. It will not be a "fake," but just what it is represented to be or nothing. The association has contracted with C. E. Bissell and Roy Dougherty to canvass the city in the interests of this "souvenir."

STANLEY TALLMAN IS A CANDIDATE

The Pushing Young Attorney Seeks the Republican Nomination for City Attorney.

Stanley Tallman aspires to the office of city attorney. The Gazette has no candidate for any city office in advance of the convention, but believes in fair and impartial treatment of all aspirants. Mr. Tallman is a product of Janesville and enjoys the confidence of a large circle of friends who would be pleased to see him honored.

He is an active and enthusiastic republican, is liberally educated and a tireless worker. He commenced his canvass for support before he knew that Mr. Cunningham was in the field, but will be satisfied with the action of the convention. In the nomination of either of these gentlemen, the party will have a good representative for this important office.

In Municipal Court
A trio of young men faced Judge Fifield this morning, two on the charge of being drunk and disorderly and one for vagrancy.

James Miller plead guilty to a complaint filed against him by Chief Hogan, charging him with being drunk and disorderly in the St. Paul station last night. He was fined $4 and costs in all $5.20 or 11 days in jail.

Otis Walkley was also charged with being drunk and disorderly in the St. Paul station last night. He plead guilty and was given 5 days in jail, a fine of $2 and costs, in all $3.20 or six additional days. He also went to jail.

John Holleran was charged with being a vagrant and plead not guilty to the charge. He was given an immediate trial. After listening to the evidence of Chief Hogan for the state, in which he stated that Holleran not only got drunk himself but bought whiskey for the other small boys in the neighborhood, all of which was denied by Holleran. The judge held the case open until Saturday at 10 a. m. to allow the chief to get more witnesses.

The case of the state of Wisconsin vs. Jos. Quinn, Jr., came up at 1:30 and a jury was drawn. The case of McLean vs. Bleasdale was adjourned until the 24.

The case of the state of Wisconsin vs. Jos. Quinn, Jr., came up at 1:30 and a jury was drawn. The case of McLean vs. Bleasdale was adjourned until the 24.

Not a Candidate
Alderman F. E. Fifield wishes to state that he is not a candidate for re-nomination as alderman of the First ward and would not accept the nomination under any circumstances even if it were offered him. There has been considerable talk to the effect that all of the present aldermen are willing to again become candidates, but Mr. Fifield says there is one at least who will not.

JANESVILLE GETS WOODMEN'S PICNIC

Beat Madison at Rockford Yesterday by 121 Votes Out of 132—Officers of Picnic Society.

Over one hundred delegates from the M. W. of A. camps of Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin were in Rockford yesterday to attend the annual convention of the Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin Picnic association. The principal business of the afternoon was the selection of a date for holding the picnic in Rockford and choosing the place for the outing in 1903.

The date selected for the picnic at Rockford was June 4th, which was selected by the Rockford committee in advance. The matter of selecting a place for the picnic in 1903 was next taken up and a strong fight was put up by Madison to get the picnic. The local committee F. P. Starr, T. L. Mason and S. M. Fisher had been at work on this matter for some time and were satisfied that they had a majority of the delegates. They, however, did not let up in their work and when the vote was counted it was found that Janesville had 121 votes out of 132, the balance going to Madison.

The following local members were selected as the officers of the picnic association for the next year:

President—F. P. Starr.
Vice President—T. L. Mason.
Secretary—S. M. Fisher.
Treasurer—O. Morse.

This picnic has grown to be a big thing and means that thousands of strangers will flock to this city in 1903 and spend their money and have a good time. The people have had one experience with this picnic crowd and will next year be better able to handle them.

MYSTIC WORKERS WILL HAVE PICNIC

Making Arrangements for a Giant Gathering in This City the Coming Summer.

The local members of the order of Mystic Workers of the World are making preparations for an immense picnic to be held in this city this summer. The Mystic Workers of the World is an organization similar in purposes to that of the Modern Woodmen of America and have many lodges throughout this part of the country. This summer the lodges of Southern Wisconsin and Northern Illinois will unite in a grand picnic to be held in this city this summer.

One delegate from each of the lodges in Southern Wisconsin and Northern Illinois will meet in this city on April 22 to transact business and determine on the date of the picnic. The committee from the local lodge having the preliminary matters in charge are O. S. Morse, J. W. House, C. N. Vankirk, Amos Rehberg and C. W. Wisch.

The picnic will bring thousands of strangers into the city and much money will be spent here. The event will be similar to the inter-state picnics of the M. W. of A.

is one good point. Careful men, is a better one, and our

Economy Coal Is The Best,

Some Farm Notes.

It is not considered a good plan to manure potato ground just previous to planting a crop. It causes an extensive growth of vines and tends to produce scab. After some other crop has grown on manured land it will be a good time to plant potatoes.

There is almost always a desire in the hearts of some people to be what they are not. The farmer wants to be the city man and the city man longs to be a farmer. The city man feels that the farmer does not have to keep a furnace going in the basement, hurry down a light breakfast of tea or toast, and run to catch a train, then work and worry over a desk, and as he goes home in the evening he dodges foot pads and all that. The farmer thinks of the city man while he gets out of a warm bed and goes shivering to the shed to get some kindling, Johnny failed to bring in, and while he is waiting for breakfast he goes out to milk the cows, piles up the frozen hay from a cut on the stack, milks with cracks in his hands, carries the horses and goes to breakfast with the odor of the stable on his clothes. The city man is inclined to the opinion that the farmer instead of always buying and paying rent, has no rent to pay and is always selling something. The coal man and the plumber never crowd him and he just forever keeps on paying for implements and looking after his deposits in the bank.

Early potatoes should be planted early. Some feel that they really ought to be planted on Good Friday. That day will be as good as any other if the ground is in good condition for planting. I like to plant early potatoes early and late potatoes late.

Dehorning calves early in life takes away some of the apparent cruelty which is attached to the dehorning of an older animal. I have tried dehorning at all ages, from early calfhood to three years old, and even older in some cases, and the earlier it can be done the better I like it.

Buckles, rings, bolts, lurs and a lot of other small articles kindred to these will be found very handy on the farm. I have spent an hour's time in trying to get a burr off a rusty bolt to use when it was very much needed. Who has not had a similar experience? I have spent as much time looking over old harness for a buckle of the right size, and have found almost every size but the one I wanted. Almost all kinds of rings are necessary on a farm but ivory rings. These are a nuisance and a menace to the honesty and integrity of youth.

A good walk is essential in the work horse. If a horse walks well it is altogether probable he will trot well. The horse that is made to do a great deal of trotting will walk slowly so as to rest up for the trotting, unless trained to be a good walker.

In times of shortage a horse with a blemish sells very well. Let the opposite condition come, however, and the least blemish will stop a horse trade. This is usually the way in the great horse markets. When people get hungry for certain things they are not liable to be so choosy about selections. When butcher stock is high, and scarce, an old cow will sell well, even if she would not make a good canner, but when the market is full, the old cow will "go over" with a lot of other stuff.

Take the calf away from the cow at once and put it in a box stall where its dam can neither see nor smell it and there will be little grieving on the part of either. An ordinary fence between the cow and her calf is only an aggravation.

It is not essential to grow a crop of wild oats, although some men will never settle down in life without trying a crop of them. No one has discovered that the business does not pay as well as the fellow who has tried it and then settled down to growing real crops. All other crops I light but wild oats. The blight attacks—and is not easily eradicated—the grower of wild oats rather than the crop.

Where it can be done it is well to provide each horse with two collars. He will need to wear one while the other is "in the wash" and laying all jokes aside, he should have a summer and winter collar. Each in size to fit the conditions of flesh for the season. A collar that fits in the winter will be too large in the summer when the horse is in thin flesh, is used without a pad. A well fitting collar is better for a horse without a pad than an ill fitting one is with a pad. A collar that fits the horse's shoulder may as well be made out of wood or steel so far as softness is concerned. Fire department horses in cities wear a collar that is made of steel. What is needed is a collar that fits. The draught should be at the right place on the shoulder and the horseman will be the man to determine this, since horses differ in size and height, and the work varies also.

Locality has a great deal to do with certain kinds of talk. In the west a man will refer to his thousand acre farm as "I have a small farm about ten miles out." In the east a man will refer to his garden patch as "I have quite a farm only a short distance out." There is a difference in opinion as well as in conditions. In one locality a farm of forty acres would be large, while in another it would be considered only a garden patch. There are some owners of large farms who ought to be able to do more for themselves and the community in which they are located. There are one-man power farms and four-man power farms, and when one man undertakes to manage a four-man farm he is decidedly wanting.

Formalin is a remedy for oat smut and a pound will treat fifty bushel of seed. If this fungus is to be headed off entirely it will pay to treat the seed. Formalin can be obtained at any drug store and can be had at fifty cents per pound.—Wisconsin Farmer.

"A HELPING HAND"

Is Gladly extended By a Janesville Citizen.

There are many enthusiastic citizens in Janesville, prepared to tell their experience for the public good. Testimony from such a source is the best evidence and will prove a "helping hand" to scores of readers. Read the following statement:

Veteran A. F. Lee, of 61 Sharon St., carpenter, says:

For twenty years I troubled my great deal. Many days I could hardly keep at my work, and by rights should have laid home and doctored. It was seldom that my back did not ache, and I have been completely laid up for three or four days at a stretch. When sleeping or sitting sharp pains penetrated the kidneys, the secretions from these organs were too frequent, and accompanied by pain. I used all kinds of remedies but none gave permanent relief. Obtaining Doan's kidney pills at the People's Drug Co., I took three, and after the first three or four doses a noticeable change was brought about. I improved steadily from then on and on completing the treatment I was in good condition and am now well.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.

Boy Held as Train Wrecker.
St. Joseph, Mo., March 20.—Herbert Cook, 19 years old, of New Buffalo, Mich., is in jail here, charged with attempting to wreck an east-bound passenger train on the Michigan Central railroad near New Buffalo. Cook is charged with placing a heavy bolt between switch joints. Had not the bolt been discovered the passenger train would have run into the open switch and the train would have been plunged into a ditch. Cook says he had no intention of causing a wreck, but put the iron on the track to have the train cut it in two. Cook confesses he has been reading dime novels.

Safe Blowers Cause Big Fire.
Marissa, Ill., March 20.—Safe blowers are responsible for a fire which destroyed $150,000 worth of property at Marissa. They entered the Commercial Hotel, where fifty persons were asleep, shortly before midnight, and blew the safe. Obtaining $2,500, the robbers escaped, leaving the building in flames.

The fire spread rapidly and was not checked before a dozen business buildings and several residences, with their contents had been destroyed. Several persons narrowly escaped death in the flames.

New York Is Storm Swept.
New York, March 20.—March, the rolister among months, let out a bel-low extending from Florida to Maine. A romping northeaster that blew 74 miles an hour for a few minutes in the morning and never recorded less than 64 miles, tore down signs, ripped off tin roofs and awnings, frayed flags to ribbons, overturned vehicles and played pranks with hats and the billow dresses of women and girls.

Chinese Rebels Are Strong.
Hong Kong, March 20.—The rebels in southern provinces continue to defeat the imperial troops sent to subdue them. General Ma and Marshall Su report that it is impossible to suppress the rebellion with the troops at their disposal, and the Viceroy of Canton has asked for reinforcements from Peking.
